

The Academic Description

the Academic Program Description provides a brief description for the most important features of the program and its educational outputs that the student is expected to achieve and proving that the maximum advantage has been obtained from the given opportunity. This accompanied by a description for each course within the program

- 1- Name of the Educational Institution / Al-Ayen Private University
- 2- The Scientific Department / the Center / Computer Technologies Engineering
- 3- Name of the Academic or Professional Program
- 4- The Final Certificate / BSC
- 5- The studying system / annual
- 6- The applied Accreditation Program / ABET
- 7- Other external influences / there is a solid relation with work market that receives our graduates, therefore the market opinion is considered when preparing the syllabus due to rapid development in this field
- 8- date of preparing the description 1/10/2021

Objectives of the Academic Program

- 1- graduating engineers who are capable to deal with the various engineering materials regarding their manufacturing and applications
- 2- preparing and graduating engineering staffs who achieve the main technical and knowledgeable requirements to be high quality engineering and technical resources in the field of engineering materials.
- 3- Empowering the principle of merging into the community to distribute the cultural of Technical Education and its applications
- 4- Strengthening the scientific and administration relations with the peers colleges as well as the Ministries, Industrial Companies and other related Institutions in the field of teaching needs and rehabilitating and developing the educational program
- 5- Preparing and developing all the required plans and scientific and administration syllabus to achieve the above